WHY DISCRIMINATE AGAINST CALIFORNIA? QUERIES GOVERNOR

Johnson Deplores Hysteria Brought About by Anti-Alien Bill; Law May Not Be Passed, He Says

SACRAMENTO, April 24.—A statement by Governor Johnson setting forth his views on the alien land controversy in the California Legislature and the forthcoming visit of Secretary of State Bryan was issued from the executive office this morning.

Governor Johnson does not attempt to predict that any law will be enacted at this session barring Japanese or the subjects of any other nation, nor if so, what kind of a law it will be, but merely asserts that there is no cause to single out California as the object of such unprecedented action by the authorities at Washington.

STATE DEFENDED.

The course of the state administration in putting forward an anti-alien bill prohibiting ownership in land by foreigners "ineligible to citizenship" is defended against the dignity of Japan and the constitutional arguments of the federal government.

The statement was as follows:

The suggestion of the President that the Secretary of State visit California for conference on the pending land bills was at once accepted by both houses of the Legislature and by the Governor, and we will be glad to welcome Mr. Bryan on his arrival. While the Legislature very properly maintained the right of the State to legislate on a matter clearly within its jurisdiction, I am sure there is no disposition to encroach on the international functions of the federal government, or justly to wound the sensibilities of any nation.

PROTESTS DISCRIMINATION.

My protest has been against the discrimination to which California has been subjected in the assumption that action which has been accepted without dissent when taken by other states and by the nation is offensive if even discussed by California.

I am not predicting that the California legislature will take any action on this subject, nor, if it does, forecasting the terms of any law which may be enacted. I am merely defending the right of California to consider, and if its legislators deem advisable, to enact a law which is clearly within both its legal power and its moral right.

COMPARES DIGNITY.

Much has been said of the dignity of Japan. We would not willingly affront the dignity of Japan, nor offend its pride. But what shall be said of the proposition that a great State, itself an empire, of possibilities greater than those of most nations, shall be hailed from the mere consideration of a legislative act, admittedly within its jurisdiction, by the protest of a foreign power which has itself enacted even more stringent regulations on the same subject? What of the dignity of California?

Admittedly, California has a right to pass an alien-land bill. No one suggests that such a bill should in terms describe the Japanese. It has been suggested that such a law in California shall follow the distinctions which are already an unprotested part of the law and policy of the United States. The United States has determined who are eligible to citizenship. The nation has solemnly declared that certain races among whom are the Japanese, are not eligible to citizenship.

U. S. DRAWS LINE.

The line has been drawn not by California, but by the United States. Discrimination if it ever occurred, came and went, when the nation declared who were and who were not eligible to citizenship. If California follows the line marked out by the federal government, the United States and not California should be accused of discrimination.

The constitution of California since 1879 has said that "the presence of foreigners ineligible to become citizens of the United States is declared to be dangerous to the well being of the state and the legislature shall discourage their immigration by all means within its power." The alien land law of the State of Washington provides that "any alien, except such as by the laws of the United States are incapable of becoming citizens of the United States, may acquire and hold land," etc.

ARIZONA HAS LAW.

The State of Arizona, in 1912, enacted that "no person not eligible to become a citizen of the United States shall acquire title to any land or real property," etc. No protest was made against this policy of the laws of the

Girl Tries Twice To Commit Suicide

Stenographer Is Found in Alley After Swallowing Poison; She Also Tried Gas.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 24.—Miss Mabel Smith, 22 years old, a stenographer, made two attempts at suicide last night and this morning and is at the Central emergency hospital in a serious condition. The young woman, who refuses absolutely to say anything about herself, was found today lying in an alleyway at 701 Buena Vista street, after having swallowed twelve bichloride of mercury tablets. She told a police officer that she resided at 740 Laguna street and after she had been removed to the hospital the police investigated. It was found that she had been residing at that address for two days only and that she had attempted to kill herself at 5 o'clock last night by turning on the gas. She was found before she lost consciousness and was ordered to move.

100 Are Dead in Fire Damp Explosion, Belief

Eighteen Bodies Brought to the Surface of the Mine in Pennsylvania.

PITTSBURGH, April 24.—Eighteen bodies have been brought to the surface of the mine of the Pittsburgh Coal Company at Fenwickville, Pa., where an explosion of fire damp yesterday killed many men and wrecked the mine.

That the mine contains many more dead, even officers of the company admit, while leaders of the rescue party and some of the men who escaped from the workings are of the opinion that the fatalities will number close to 100.

Asks Executives to Stop Tong Wars

Coroner's Jury Accuses Bing Kong Members of Murder.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 24.—A coroner's jury composed of prominent business men returned today an eight-page verdict accusing every member of the Bing Kong tong, including the president and secretary of murder and asking that Secretary of State William Jennings Bryan, Governor Hiram Johnson and Mayor Ralph Beale be asked to rid the Pacific coast of the wars of the hatchmen.

Two Members Missing From Burning Ship

Captain Reports On Disaster Which Befell Schooner Charles Nelson.

EUREKA, Cal., April 24.—Captain John Olson of the steam schooner Charles Nelson, which burned at Field's Landing, reported early today that two members of his crew are missing.

The blaze, which started in the engine room, was discovered by Olson. With difficulty the crew escaped to the pier. They cut the lashings of the vessel and allowed it to drift away. It lodged on a mud flat a short distance from the pier and burned an hour and a half before the first tug from this port arrived. The danger to those who sought to stay the flames was increased by the presence in the hold of the vessel of two tanks of oil.

Frank Lapidron, a fireman on the Nelson, who suffered burns about the arms, face and back, was taken to a hospital in Eureka.

Baby Takes 300-Foot Ride Through Culvert

Rescued and Resuscitated After Perilous Trip Inside a Pipe.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., April 24.—Edna Newman, aged two years, was rescued and resuscitated after being washed through more than 300 feet of 18-inch culvert pipe, near her home at Windber today. The child was playing near a creek and fell into the water a few feet above where the creek entered the culvert under a road. The little girl was unconscious when recovered by a pedestrian at the other end of the pipe.

Accuses Bunko Men Of Slaying Blanchard

Gallo's Confession Implicates Two Men in the Murder of Deputy.

SAN QUENTIN, April 24.—Paulino and Merino, two San Francisco buncosmen, are accused by Michael Gallo, now in this prison, of "killing Bert Blanchard," the deputy game warden recently found dead near Stead. Gallo, in his confession, said the men thought Blanchard was going to arrest them for swindling.

MAKES FIGHT FOR MCKINLEY HEIRLOOMS

Mrs. E. V. Heidt Testifies Mother Inherited $45,000

That her mother had inherited $45,000 from the late President McKinley, the greater part of which was used to establish her stepfather, Harry R. Cooper, in business, was the statement today of Mrs. Emanuel Villard Heidt, grandniece of McKinley, who is suing Cooper for the return of a large number of personal effects which formed a portion of the estate.

Mrs. Heidt, who was formerly Miss Marjorie McKinley Moore of this city, came from Fort Thomas, Kentucky, to press her action in the Superior Court. For two years she claimed that she had been unable to locate the property which her stepfather had stored following his wife's death. During the trial her attorneys succeeded in obtaining the admission from Cooper while on the stand that he had placed the goods in a warehouse under the name of Williams, and a court order was made that they be not removed until after the case had been decided.

Aviator Dunetz Is Killed at Berlin

Russian Princess Also Falls, but Escapes Serious Injury at Johannisthal Meet.

BERLIN, April 24.—The German aviator Dunetz was killed this morning at the Johannisthal aerodrome. In the suburbs, where his aeroplane fell from a considerable height.

Princess Eugenie Shakoffskaya, a certificated Russian air pilot, and Vsevolod Abramovitch, a Russian aviator, also fell while flying in a biplane at Johannisthal today. Abramovitch was very severely injured, but the princess escaped with minor hurts. Their machine collapsed at a height of 30 feet.

WIFE REFUSED TO SIGN

Under cross-examination on the witness stand this morning by Attorney Lionel E. Nathan, representing Mrs. Heidt, Cooper testified that he had drawn up a will for his wife to sign, but that she had refused to sign the paper, which provided that her property should revert to her husband and cut off her daughter entirely.

Three Policemen to Arrest Girl of 7

Infant Fiend Attempts Murder of Babies; Attacks School Children With Teeth.

SACRAMENTO, April 24.—Resisting violently with her hands, feet and teeth, Lucia Martinez, 7 years old, who has terrorized a neighborhood by attempts to murder little babies, was taken into custody today by a police man and three patrolmen.

Following the attack with an iron bar upon a 3-year-old baby Tuesday night, the Martinez girl, who is very small for her age, began this morning biting little school children and the police were notified.

The police found the child in a ragged and unkempt condition. Teachers at the school she attended said they had experienced considerable difficulty with her. At school, she terrorized all of her playmates. She has not been at school recently.

Believe 2 Deaths Were Result of Suicide Pact

Man and Woman Shot With the Same Revolver in Los Angeles.

LOS ANGELES, April 24.—What the police believed was a suicide pact was revealed today when the bodies of Ernest Weiss and Mrs. Anson P. Riddle were found in the woman's apartment. Both had been shot over the right eye with the same revolver, which was found in the man's hand. Mrs. Riddle was the wife of a man who is now in the county hospital being treated for a wound received April 6, when, it is alleged, he attempted to rob a house. In her purse was found a ticket calling for passage on a steamer leaving for San Francisco this afternoon.

The Riddles came here from Columbus, Ohio, several months ago.

Boat Goes Over Dam; Three Girls Drown

TROY, N. Y., April 24.—Three girls drowned today when the steam ferryboat Ambrose went over the state dam at Ingham avenue.

BUREAU ON TARIFF IS URGED

Representative Murdock, Progressive, Attacks Radical Reductions

Congressman Declares Democratic Bill Will Be Injurious to Industries

WASHINGTON, April 24.—A tariff commission with power to elicit information was urged, reasonable reduction of any duty obviously excessive was advocated and radical reductions not founded on adequate information were opposed in a minority report presented to the House today by Representative Victor Murdock of Kansas, the Progressive member of the ways and means committee.

Murdock in his report asserted that if there had been wanting proof of the necessity of a tariff commission the pending Democratic tariff bill alone would supply it. He charged that as a result of the methods used in its preparation the few men who drafted it "are not warranted in feeling certainty as to its effects and most of those who have introduced it in caucus as a party measure cannot have other than a superficial knowledge of its provisions."

Murdock declared the Democratic party has proposed a tariff which will be injurious to many industries and may be destructive to some.

"Under the guise of reducing the cost of living," he said, "it may destroy the very basis of our industrial prosperity. Proposing and promising to cheapen the food and clothing of the workingman, it may take from him the very means by which he may earn his livelihood. Proclaiming in one statement that it is cheapening the articles used by the farmer, in the next statement it opens the American market to foreign agricultural and dairy products."

CLAIMS EFFECT IS DAMAGING.

"The Progressive party's position on the tariff is distinct. It does not believe in the Democratic position which proposes to remove all protection except that incidental to revenue. It does not believe in the Republican proposition which would keep the duties prohibitive. It believes in a protective tariff which shall equalize the conditions of competition between the United States and foreign countries, for both the farmer and manufacturer, and which shall maintain for labor an adequate standard of living."

Before the debate was resumed Senators Ransdell and Thornton of Louisiana and two Louisiana sugar growers called on Majority Leader Underwood and pleaded for more time before the proposed 10 per cent reduction on sugar goes into effect.

Underwood, it is understood, informed his visitors that the request could not be entertained.

Tariff discussion was on again today in both the Senate and House as a result of the caucus.

Representative Peters of Massachusetts, a member of the ways and means committee which framed the Democratic bill, was among the speakers on the Democratic side today, presenting an elaborate argument in defense of the committee measure.

MANY MEMBERS ABSENT.

The House attendance was depleted by the departure of more than 100 representatives on a special train for New York to attend a banquet as guests at the celebration of the opening of an office building.

After a long involved discussion of various tariff theories Representative Hammond urged a middle course between high protection and absolute free trade.

"The Democratic party is not a free-trade party," he declared, "and as far as I am concerned it has never declared for free trade."

He undertook to show that the Underwood bill was drawn strictly in accordance with the tariff prices for revenue only principle. In a detailed discussion of the bill he indicated the placing of flour on the free list. He explained the keeping of the duty on wheat while flour was placed on the free list by holding that as a manufacturing proposition the millers of the United States were able to buy American wheat, grind it into flour and compete with the finished products in the markets of the world.

On this basis they surely can compete at home," he said.

ACTION IS SECRET.

The imperial chancellor and the foreign minister visited the budget committee of the imperial parliament today in order to make a confidential communication to its members in regard to the international situation.

The cancellation by Emperor William of his proposed trip to the steamship Emperor and his determination to return to Berlin from Ham-burg on April 28 and attributed to well-informed quarters to the crisis brought about by the fall of Scutari. The stock market was demoralized today by the fears of grave political complications.

Austria-Hungary telegraphed to all the other powers yesterday demanding that they send an ultimatum to Montenegro to evacuate Scutari within 48 hours, according to an unconfirmed dispatch from Vienna to the Reuters news agency.

Austria is said to have declared she and her allies will take steps to prevent her political interests.

ULTIMATUM ISSUED TO POWERS

Turn Nicholas Out of Scutari or We Will, Declare Austro-Hungarians

Crisis Spreads Shadow Over Europe; Situation Admitted to Be Grave

LONDON, April 24.—"Take immediate combined action to turn the Monteneggrins out of Scutari or we shall do it alone," declared a circular note sent by the Austro-Hungarian government to the powers today. The note is virtually an ultimatum.

Austria-Hungary declares she cannot permit the Monteneggrins to flout the decision of the great powers. The prestige of the European nations has been violated, says the note, and Austria-Hungary demands that the powers decide promptly on the steps to be taken to restore that prestige, adding that if the powers should be unable to reach a speedy decision she will see to it herself that the will of Europe is respected and that the Monteneggrins vacate Scutari.

NICHOLAS DEFIANT.

CETTINJE, April 24.—"Scutari is from today Montenegro," was the defiant reply of King Nicholas today to the European invitation to surrender the hard-won Turkish citadel.

The king made this statement in the course of a speech delivered from the balcony of the royal palace. Among his audience were the ministers of the Balkan states who came to congratulate him. He added:

"Should Europe still think of snatching Scutari from Montenegro, which has given her life-blood to take it, Europe will have to carry out the task by force of arms."

CRISIS IS GRAVE.

BERLIN, April 24.—There are many indications here that the German government and public regard the European situation as critical. A high diplomatic official said today:

"Europe has entered another crisis as grave as that which preceded the Austro-Russian demobilization."

The press bureau of the German foreign office, contrary to its custom, was not prepared today with a statement either in regard to the ultimatum to Montenegro or to the general situation. An official, however, believed it probable that force would have to be employed to expel the Monteneggrins from Scutari.

WILL WORK TOGETHER.

The official view here is that, and the European powers will work together until the problem has been solved. A feeling of consternation and helplessness was displayed at yesterday's conference of the ambassadors in London. According to advisers received here the representatives of all the nations, including Russia, agreed that the decision of the powers concerning Scutari must be enforced, but they were non-plussed as to how Montenegro was to be coerced.

ACTION IS SECRET.

The imperial chancellor and the foreign minister visited the budget committee of the imperial parliament today in order to make a confidential communication to its members in regard to the international situation.

The cancellation by Emperor William of his proposed trip to the steamship Emperor and his determination to return to Berlin from Ham-burg on April 28 and attributed to well-informed quarters to the crisis brought about by the fall of Scutari. Side declares that Ziegler stole his 7-year-old daughter from Ziegler's first wife in Los Angeles last June.

Maine Celebration at the Park Will Have Many and Varied Attractions.

With their eyes turned skyward, the United Spanish war veterans are anxiously watching the signs in anticipation of the big benefit at Shellmound Park next Saturday afternoon and evening. They have been assured by the weather man that everything points to having one of the most perfect days for such an out-of-door affair.

The final touches are being given to the arrangements, which are now practically completed, and nothing remains but the actual entertainment to begin. Silas Christoffersen announced today that his big hydroplane was in readiness for his part of the program. Thousands of American flags were purchased yesterday and will be liberally in a shower as souvenir of the occasion.

Out at the hospital at Ft. Scott preparations are being made by Sergeants De Young and Estely to give a graphic demonstration of how the hospital corps rescues a wounded comrade on the field of battle and bear him away out of harm's reach where he can be given medical assistance.

TO ARRANGE PROGRAM.
At the headquarters of the Sixth Infantry at the Presidio the various numbers to be given by the members of Grubbs Camp, are to be decided upon tonight and the announcement will be made tomorrow morning. There will be a big meeting of the camp tonight and Sergeant Major Walter Ulrich said today that interest in their part of the program was high and would be an interesting demonstration of what the members of the Sixth Infantry are capable of.

At Shellmound park every arrangement has been made by Wm. Side for the accommodation of the throngs that will attend and also for the pleasure of those who will want to dance. A new polish of wax has been put on the big pavilion floor and there will be music all the afternoon and evening for the throngs that will be in this pastime. The floor will be free to all and the veterans desire to give every one an opportunity to have all the dancing they want for one occasion.

FLOOR COMMITTEE NAMED.
The floor committee has already been announced and will have badges to direct the throngs. The members will exert themselves in trying to make things as pleasant for all wishing to dance as possible. Every camp has been represented and they have been authorized to call upon the ladies of the various auxiliaries around the bay for further assistance. The members of the committee are as follows:

K. B. Best, Liscum Camp No. 7.
E. W. Anderson, Barry Camp No. 25.
Dr. Lewis Weibach, McKinnon Camp No. 38.

LUCKY BALDWIN'S ESTATE DISTRIBUTED TO HEIRS

$11,000,000 Are Divided Between Two Women by the Court

LOS ANGELES, April 24.—The task of distributing the estate of the late E. J. ("Lucky") Baldwin was completed today in the probate department of the Superior Court after four years of litigation, when the final report of the executor was filed and distribution ordered accordingly.

Sales of realty valued in excess of $11,000,000 were among the items in the final report. The proceeds of this were ordered divided between Mrs. Clara Baldwin Stocker and Mrs. Anita Baldwin McClaughry.

Wears Diamonds in Her Stockings and Lives in Palatial Car

LOS ANGELES, April 24.—When she is at home, Mrs. Clara Baldwin Stocker, one of the two principal heirs of the "Lucky" Baldwin millions, lives at Arcadia. But she is so seldom at home, according to a petition on file today in the Superior Court, that her name should be stricken from the rolls of voters.

The petitioner in this case is H. Franke, who is seeking the recall of Trustee H. A. Unruh of Arcadia, who also is executor of the Baldwin estate. According to Franke, Mrs. Stocker lives in a palatial private car, in which, surrounded by a colossal wardrobe of gorgeous gowns and diamond-studded stockings and slippers, she sits about the country constantly.

OAKLAND SHIPPERS GET NEW BENEFITS

Further facilities for Oakland shippers who are reaching out for the valuable trade in Contra Costa county were announced today by officials of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railway.

The company, by a traffic agreement with the new Oakland-Antioch railway, henceforth will transport freight in less than carload lots direct to the Key Route freight yards at Twenty-second and Chestnut streets, a point much nearer to the business section than the passenger terminal of the Oakland-Antioch at Fortieth street and Shafter avenue.

In addition to the short haul thus afforded, Oakland shippers will have the benefit of a lower rate than that quoted to San Francisco shippers via either the Southern Pacific or the Santa Fe, by way of Bay Point. The difference in the rate is declared to be quite an advantage to local shippers.

The Oakland-Antioch line, according to those in touch with the situation, is doing a fast growing business and Oakland manufacturers and distributors are getting the benefit of much of the increased trade.

AD CLUBS OF TWO CITIES JOIN HANDS

Big "Get Together" Banquet Will be Held at Hotel, This Evening.

Preparations are complete for a big "get together" banquet at which ad clubs of Oakland and San Francisco will join hands at the Hotel Oakland this evening. Final arrangements for the program, which will include musical numbers, special "stunts" and speeches, have been made and the big force of attaches at the hotel have completed the decorations. Autos are in readiness for the trip about Oakland and its environs, at which the visiting ad men and their women friends will be entertained before the banquet, which has the distinction of being the first ladies' night ever given by the Oakland club, and arrangements are made for an informal reception to take place before the affair.

Special stunts for the occasion have been arranged by Kenneth A. Millikan and Carl Nickel, who have directed a number of rehearsals for their offerings. President Fred Hall of the Oakland advertising organization, will welcome the guests and President William Woodhead of the San Francisco club will respond. Several prominent members of the club or both sides of the bay will answer toasts.

The San Francisco delegation, near-ly 300 strong, will arrive in Oakland via the Southern Pacific, and will be met at the station at Fourteenth and Franklin streets by the autos, which will take them about the city. The autos will parade down Broadway and then take the visitors through East Oakland, about the lake, to Piedmont and through the business section. At 6 o'clock they will arrive at the hotel, where the women of the Oakland club will receive the feminine guests and an informal reception will take place. The dinner will begin sharp at 7 o'clock.

Glenn C. Barnhart, publicity man of this city, has been appointed toastmaster for the occasion. Lee Bertillon, R. F. D. Brown, George Fitch, J. W. McDonald and several others will make short addresses. The affair will be strictly informal. Following the banquet the guests will be escorted back to the Southern Pacific station, whence they will return across the bay.

GROWS BEAUTIFUL, HEAVY HAIR; WE PROVE IT; 25-CENT 'DANDERINE'

Destroys Dandruff; Stops Falling Hair; Cleans and Invigorates Your Scalp; Delightful Dressing.

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Danderine.

It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a 25-cent bottle of Danderine's Lustrous Hair Dressing. Danderine now—drug stores recommend it—apply a little Danderine and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance; freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and lustre and in just a few moments you cannot find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp. Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower, destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp and it never fails to stop falling hair at once. If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this.

ILLINOIS SOCIETY WILL HOLD MONTHLY MEETING

The next regular monthly business and social meeting of the Illinois Society, for present and prospective members only, will be held on Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Craigie Sharpe at 748 Broadway street.

The last public entertainment was held on April 15 at Havana Hall, with an attendance of about 200.

COTTAGE BURNED

Presumably from a defective flue, a cottage, occupied by A. A. Lovet, near the corner of East Twenty-first street and Twenty-third avenue, caught fire late yesterday. Neighbors notified the fire department. The blaze was soon under control. The damage was slight and no one was injured.

LADIES' AID SOCIETY TO GIVE THEATER PARTY

2360 KILLED IN COAL MINES DURING YEAR

WASHINGTON, April 24.—Coal mine accidents took a tenth toll last year of 2360 men, according to a statement made public today by the United States bureau of mines. The statement adds, however, that these figures represent a death rate of only 3.15 in every thousand men employed, the smallest rate of mortality since 1893. The number of tons of coal mined in proportion to the number of lives sacrificed was the greatest on record.

There are at present, according to the statement, a total of 750,000 men employed in the industry.

When Lovers Fall Out. Why Do They Blame Each Other?

By Laura Jean Libbey

Copyright 1913, by Laura Jean Libbey.

"Let us no more contend, nor blame each other.
Blamed enough elsewhere; but strive
In offices of love how we may lighten
Each other's burden in our share of woe."

LAURA JEAN LIBBEY.

T IS one thing for lovers to determine not to have a falling out by deferring to each other in every possible way consistent with reason. Isn't it amusing how soon these golden resolves melt into air, seemingly, quite as soon as they are needed?

A little thoughtfulness and dire quarrels might be averted. They usually commence by bickerings. He wants to know what has become of his paper or his pipe. "You've tucked them somewhere, you know you have!" I can't keep track of my things any more. Mother never interfered with my belongings.

If the bride stopped to think about it she would make a gentle response. But for an instant she forgets herself and retorts angrily: "I haven't seen your paper, and as for your nasty old pipe I wouldn't touch it with a ten-foot pole. And while we're on the subject I may as well tell you first as last, if you like the way your mother does things and don't like my way the best thing you can do is to go back to her and take my compliments along with you. You're too hard to get along with."

"If you who are hard to get along with," he declares, "I can't ask quietly for my paper and pipe without your taking advantage of it to raise a row."

"I am sure I didn't eat 'em," sobbed the bride. "You might take the trouble to look for things where you put them away."

"Well, why didn't you put them away sharply?"

"Well, why didn't you put them away if you ever want to see them again?" John quips the room wearily, slanting the door after him. The bride hastily dons her bonnet and runs hastily around the corner to have a good cry. It's always the poor, much abused mother-in-law who has to patch up the breach between them.

Lucy blames John for the quarrel and John blames Lucy. "When you've been married as many years as I have you will learn that it is poor policy for each to lay the blame on the other," she declares. "In married life there are a great many things which married women have to overlook. When I saw your father wiping his shoes with the evening paper and knocking his pipe off the table with his elbow, smashing it to bits, even though he had the effrontery to declare that I spread the paper down purposely to keep him from tracking the floor and that I must have put his pipe there where it would be broken, the answer, I made, 'I'm so sorry, dear,' generally set matters straight. In his own heart he knew very well he had blamed me in the wrong."

The motto of a husband and wife should be: "Never allow an angry thought against each other to dwell in your hearts for long. Remember the hour is coming soon or late—perhaps when you least expect it—when you must part. The hands that now so tightly clasp each other will slowly loosen their hold on each other. The one who is left will grieve bitterly for putting blame on the heart that was once so devoted."

Words of blame should never pass the lips without hours or days of previous deliberation. A smile goes so much further and brings far better results. Last, but by no means least, kindly words never leave a bitter sting in the memory.

SHE IS MODEST.

"Dear Miss Libbey: I have dark hair, brown eyes, and have by most everybody been considered good looking. I am not very old, not yet 17. I have always had a great number of friends. But I have a number of boy friends living in the city near me, one or two who want to go with me steady, but I do not care for them, as I have gone with one of the fellows before for some months. But there is a young fellow whom I like very much, and he is very nice looking. I have never seen him with a girl, although I believe he calls on some girl friends once in a while. He has been coming out to see me, and he comes to my house. He seems to like me, but when I see him in town he seems not so friendly. Isn't there any way I could gain his affection? He at first took me to pieces, but does not so much any more. But there is a large auto, which he rides in. He seems to be with boy friends mostly. And lately he has made dates, or his friend made them, over the phone with my girl friend, and when I ask him about the date after he has said he didn't know anything about it. Would you advise me to write to him and tell him I do not stand for such treatment, or not pay any more attention to him? I don't believe he cares to go with anyone steady, but I like him and he seems to like me. Would he be a good way of letting him know I do not run after him? I have friends who ask to take me places and are very nice, and some who are friendly for awhile, then they seem to drop. Some of them want to call at my home, and I refuse them because I do not care for so many different ones. Do you suppose that is the reason they do not seem so friendly? I always try to act my best. I often think I reason with him, but he doesn't seem to care as much as I do. I don't talk so much and to interest friends, although quite popular sometimes. I live about six blocks from the car line in this town, and it is five miles to the city, to visit, and he runs every half hour. I thought maybe it was too far, and they might not want to come, in the winter especially. I go to a dance generally once a week and am especially popular there. My girl friend isn't considered pretty. She is quite homely, but a good dresser. We always dress with good taste. Of course, we do not have everything which is worn, but dress nice. Do you think it makes any difference whether my chum is good looking or not? Of course, so many boys want a girl who is good looking. Do you think I am not old enough for some of the fellows? You see, I do not care to go with a fellow steady unless he suits me, and I haven't found one lately except the one I mentioned (or one of his friends I know) at first. It just happened that I met this first fellow, and do you think I am too easy to get acquainted with? Do you think I ought to be more serious and a little more independent? Now this fellow I spoke of that wants to go with me isn't so awful good looking. He also has a nice large car, but I do not care for him. He comes out most any time of the day, and I have told him I do not care for him. What would you advise me to do?"

"You would be doing a very foolish thing in writing to the fellow as you plan. He has a perfect right to go about with whom he chooses. You are not engaged to him. I am afraid you are inclined to be jealous. Don't be. A good way of letting him know you do not run after him is simply not to run after him. No there are things which make a girl a little more independent. Now this fellow I mentioned (or one of his friends I know) at first. It just happened that I met this first fellow, and do you think I am too easy to get acquainted with? Do you think I ought to be more serious and a little more independent? Now this fellow I spoke of that wants to go with me isn't so awful good looking. He also has a nice large car, but I do not care for him. He comes out most any time of the day, and I have told him I do not care for him. What would you advise me to do?"

CEASED HIS ATTENTIONS.
"Dear Miss Libbey: I have been keeping company with a boy for about three months, for which time he seemed to think all the world of me. For some unknown reason he has ceased his attentions toward me, which almost kills me. I have met him several occasions since. He acts nicely toward me, but never explains himself. If I say anything he wants to put the blame onto me. I have tried to forget him, but cannot. What can I do to break his affection? I have met him several times in town when I meet him, or shall I ignore him? Also, there is another young man who has called on me several times, but when he is leaving he never asks when he can see me again. He seems to be of rather a cool disposition. Do you think he cares for me? Or shall I reject his attentions?"

There is really little use in trying to revive an affection that has once cooled. The best thing to do is to try to forget the fellow by becoming interested in some one who will appreciate your interest in him more than this one does.

"Dear Miss Libbey: I am in trouble. I wonder if you will favor me with a bit of kind advice? I have been corresponding with a man for about two years, and at intervals of about four months he came to Chicago. From the first he showed me marked interest. I always resented this, and told him so many times in plain English. Nevertheless, he still persisted. He gave me several bits of jewelry. Among these was a diamond ring (small), which he gave me nothing more than a birthday gift, and which I accepted as such. Last week I heard that he had been telling and bragging about what a good fellow he was, etc. O, it was awful—the conceit. I never told him that I was then in plain facts what I thought of him, and I added that we were no longer even acquaintances. In reply to this I received the most insulting letter. He said as much as I was 'no good,' and that a lady never wrote such a letter. He said I demanded the ring. He did not stop at my 'faults,' but also attacked the character of my friends, who are as good as gold. His personal remarks were entirely unbecoming. As I said nothing against his education, breeding and manners in my letter to him, I am at a loss as to what action to take. Should I ignore him entirely, or let him know that he hasn't got me 'bluffed,' and write a letter in defense of my own self? He is just the kind of a fellow who would like a lot of notoriety and scandal, and that above all things is what I do not want. But if I ignore everything back to him, letters and all, he will lose no time in letting everyone know he had me 'scared,' and he would probably never tire of telling the story, his view."

If you are making a mountain out of a mole hill, place the first place you shouldn't have written the letter to him. It was uncalled for. You should have waited until you had heard his side of the story. Then again, you did wrong to accept jewelry. A girl who accepts gifts of jewelry from a man to whom she is not engaged lets herself open to just such unpleasantness as you are experiencing. You acted most dishonorably in accepting the gifts, feeling toward the fellow as you did. The thing for you to do now is to return the gifts without delay and make up your mind that this experience will be a lesson for you to profit by. Do not attempt to keep up the correspondence further, even in the future. You were in the wrong in the first place and that the quicker the whole incident is closed the better for you.

LETTER REVEALS MAN'S DESPAIR

Unable to Climb Out of Abyss
Alone, Aged Man Threatens to End His Life.

CHICAGO, April 24.—The tragic story of a man's struggle to live and keep up appearances against great odds was told today in an anonymous letter received by Coroner Hoffman. The writer threatens to commit suicide unless some extraordinary occurrence intervenes to lift him from the abyss of despair into which he has fallen. Officers were assigned to the case in the hope that the man may be found in time to prevent his death.

The letter, dated yesterday, reads: "Unless the unexpected happens, that is, unless means of living are placed within my reach by extraordinary circumstances, the writer, devoid of means, devoid of friends, unable to secure employment by reason of his age, 63, will give up a struggle of more than a year and enter the combination of past and future known as eternity."

"You will have to treat my body as that of a pauper, but if Cook county can afford it, have it cremated and send the ashes to the family of my wife, who lies buried in the family plot in a certain city, with a request to strew the ashes on her grave."

"I have heard your testimony before the O'Hara committee, that in your opinion all suicides, at the time they leave this earth, are insane. I hope this letter will change your mind when it is corroborated by my body, unless its very calmness proves the insanity of the writer." The end of this week will, in all probability, end my comedy of keeping up appearances.

"In my pocket will be found the explanation of this anonymity."

Heat When and Where You Want It

When you cook with gas there is no heat wasted. The fire burns only when and where you want it. That fact proves that gas is a very economical kitchen fuel.

When you cook with gas you have an intense, even flame at the touch of a match.

No trouble, worry or dirt.

Think how convenient it is to have a hot fire ready in an instant's time in case of sudden sickness in the night. Hot water or a hot substance of any kind can be had in a jiffy.

"It's funny, but every time I go to Bowman's for anything I feel a confidence in the institution the minute I step in the door," said a friend to the writer the other evening. "There seems to be an atmosphere about the store that makes me feel at perfect ease to ask for anything I want and be assured that I'll get it without any 'ifs' nor 'ands' or 'subtleties' or 'just-as-soons' I can't explain why it is; I only know that it impresses me in this manner."

And this is the way we explained it: "You probably have an old friend, some one you've known for many, many years and during all of these years this friend has had many opportunities to take advantage of you and instead of doing so has remained true to your interests and true to your ideals. The years have multiplied the confidence you've had in him until today you know that his friendship is 100% good. You get inspiration from his handshake, you are at perfect ease in his presence, you know him through and through and you've never found him lacking."

"As it is to the individual with an old friend, so it is to the public with Bowman's. Bowman's is an old and long established business institution. Bowman's has stood in the forefront of Oakland's activities, serving thousands, pleasing them all and making good at every turn. Is it difficult, then, to understand the condition which inspires your confidence? It is in the very atmosphere of the institution."

KODAKS AGAIN!

Please Excuse Us for Mentioning Them So
Often, but the Snap-Shot Season Is On.

You must pardon the editor for continually talking about kodaks and the Bowman service in the developing and printing of films.

There is no feature of the business, with the exception of our prescription department, enjoying such widespread patronage as the kodak department. Amateur photographers have sent us their rolls for printing and development from almost every part of the world. We have customers living right in the heart of New York City, with scores of concerns around them doing this work, and yet they send their films out here to California, in order to have us develop them.

It isn't the climate that enables us to do this work so successfully, but it is simply to be attributed to the care and skill we insist be used upon every order. It is an every day occurrence to find a picture developed and printed at Bowman's bring out details which seem invariably to be lost if developed elsewhere, and it is just this fact that has kept us the business of those who have moved away and obtained the patronage of their friends in foreign localities.

If it is worth while for a man in New York to send us a roll of films for development isn't it worth your while to possibly get a few blocks out of the way to get the same service?

BUY YOUR BULK GOODS IN DIRT-PROOF SANITARY PACKAGES.

The Day of the Scoop and Scale and Paper
Bag Has Given Way to the Day of the Germ-Proof Container.

Any one over 25 or 30 years of age remembers the day when the drug-gist sold nearly everything in bulk.

The same scales and often the same scoop were used for sulphur, Ipsom salts, French chalk and a hundred other varieties of bulk goods.

If the files got into jars they were picked out as discovered, dirt accumulated and sanitation, although preached, was never practiced.

Today the up-to-date druggist sells practically all bulk goods packed in half, one or two-pound dust-proof packages.

Bowman's, for many years, have taken the initiative in package goods, and today there is practically no article of general demand at Bowman's which is not protected or packed in sanitary containers of convenient size. If you ask at Bowman's for 10 cents' worth of Boric Acid or Sulphur, or French Chalk, or Epsom Salts, or Soap Bark or any of scores of other similar articles you'll be handed, neatly wrapped, a box or carton or bottle containing the exact quantity asked for.

These original packages are put in our laboratories under hygienic conditions, carefully weighed from fresh ingredients and preserving the full strength and insuring the contents against any possible contamination.

Insomuch as it costs no more for drugs thus packed it is just as well to see that you get them.

SOME GOOD NEWS ABOUT FACE POWDER

We have an imported French face powder of more than ordinary interest and we want you all to read about it.

In the first place it sells for about half the price of most imported powders, but more interesting still is the fact that it seems to be as satisfactory as the more expensive makes.

We have been selling it for some time, but were never able to advertise it to any extent because we could not procure enough to supply the demand. In fact, we had difficulty, until recently, in keeping enough on hand to satisfy the demands of the ladies who knew about it.

We have recently received, however, a fair-sized shipment and have other shipments coming along regularly, therefore feel safe in announcing it. It is called Precoda Face Powder and sells for 50 cents a box.

IF YOU'VE A DOL- LAR AND A HALF, READ THIS

When an individual article is of enough importance to be featured in this weekly Bulletin you may rest assured that it's well worth reading about.

This is the case with a $1.50 cane shopping bag or picnic lunch satchel which we received in stock recently.

These satchels are 15 inches long and are made of the same durable material you'll find in a cane seat in a chair. They're bound with Keatol and protected with heavy leather corners strongly riveted.

They're finished with lock and key and two brass straps. Judge at them you'd judge the cost at about $3. They are of attractive shape and of great carrying capacity.

Of course, being of cane they're almost as light as a feather and yet of sufficient durability to warrant you in checking them as baggage if you ever wish to do so.

Almost every one who has seen them has purchased one or two. They're really an exceptional value.

We also have them 16 inches long selling for $1.25.

OFFER COMPROMISE PLAN WOULD BUILD NEW CHURCH

PERSPECTIVE OF PROPOSED TEN-STORY INSTITUTIONAL AND BUSINESS BUILDING OF FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH ADJOINING PRESENT EDIFICE AT TWELFTH AND CLAY STREETS.

First Congregational May Settle the Dilemma by Ten-Story Edifice

As a solution of the material problem of location and improvement before the First Congregational church, which is involved in the request for the resignation of the pastor, Rev. Herbert A. Jump, a compromise plan for an institutional church has been presented to the trustees and deacons. In letters, which include a drawing of a ten-story building is enclosed.

The project is the fourth to be considered in connection with the future of the valuable property of the church at Twelfth and Clay streets. Objection has been made to the other three, and it remains to be seen what attitude will be taken regarding the compromise plan, which has been submitted by several of its advocates, who are among the prominent members of the church.

It provides for a ten-story store and office building, with three or more floors reserved for church institutional purposes, including a gymnasium, lecture, reading and game rooms, Sunday school apartments, church administration offices and other quarters for ecclesiastical use. The plan is intended to overcome the sentimental objections to the razing of the historic "First church" and the erection of a combined church and business building.

to cover the entire property, a project favored by Dr. Jump.

THE OTHER THREE PLANS.

The three plans which have to far met with opposition are:

The church property to remain in its present condition.

The entire property to be sold and an edifice built outside the business district.

The old church to be torn down and an institutional church and business structure erected on the entire site, fronting on Clay, Twelfth and Thirteenth streets.

Dr. Jump declined today to state whether he favored the compromise, explaining that he preferred to leave the matter entirely in the hands of the congregation, on account of his resignation being before that body, to be voted upon next Sunday.

It is contended by those favoring a compromise institutional building that the Sunday school and social service accommodations of the present church are 20 years behind the times, and that the plan suggested meets the objection of those who object to worshipping in a structure devoted partly to business, such as the Temple Auditorium in Los Angeles.

The partial improvement of the church property would involve the erection of a building to cover an area fronting 100 feet on Clay street and 120 feet on Thirteenth.

AMALGAMATION REVIVED.

The present situation in the financial and pastoral affairs of the First Congregational church has revived discussion of the proposed amalgamation of the First church and Plymouth Congregational, the latter being located at Piedmont and Laurel avenues, where an institutional building has been erected within the last few years. Rev. A. W. Palmer has been mentioned as a fit successor to Dr. Jump, in case the resignation of the latter is accepted by the congregation.

Dr. Jump declared this morning that he had heard no talk of the proposed amalgamation, Rev. Palmer stated.

"Nothing is known of such a plan out here at this church. There has been all sorts of rumors concerning the First church, amalgamating it with almost all the other Congregational churches in the city. There is absolutely nothing official about the merger with Plymouth."

Charles S. Greene, a prominent member of the First Congregational church, said he had heard slight discussion of the rumored consolidation, but understood that it had little significance.

CLUB MEMBERS TO MAKE SELECTION

The announcement in THE TRIBUNE of last night that J. B. Caine of Salt Lake City will be invited to be secretary of the newly organized Commercial Club of Oakland placed the directors of that organization, and the committee named to recommend a secretary, in a position in a wrong light before the members of the club, due to the selection of the positive form "will" in place of the subjunctive form "may," the selection of Caine for this position being absolutely in the hands of the club membership, which will meet at a luncheon tomorrow. The committee selected to recommend some one for the job as secretary consists of M. J. Layman, chairman, C. J. Hoese, W. H. Welby, O. E. Helle and F. W. Bigger. This committee, after passing upon all applications received, decided upon Caine as the most desirable and valuable man, due in a measure to the fact that Salt Lake City is the center of much capital, which seeks investment on the coast, and the close touch which Caine has with all men and affairs of that city. The committee's recommendation was passed upon by the directors, and approved, but this action did not engage Caine, nor go further than to present his name to the membership direct, with the committee's recommendation, coupled with that of the directors.

"The selection of a secretary of our club means a great deal," said A. S. Lavenson, vice-president of the club, this morning. "In the first place he will receive a large salary, and such an outlay should be made on the responsibility of the membership and not the directors. In the second place, this man will mean much to the welfare and success of the club, and while the directors have great confidence in Mr. Caine as being the right man for the place, so much so that they have recommended him, the responsibility for his selection should be properly shouldered by the entire membership, as it, of course, will be when the time comes."

NO JOY RIDING IN MUNICIPAL AUTOS

"Joy riding" in city automobiles at the expense of the municipality will be an impossibility if the resolution introduced by Commissioner W. J. Bacons at the meeting of the city council this morning is adopted. The resolution aims to regulate the handling of city automobiles stored and taken care of in the new municipal garage established by the city council. Under the new regulations, if passed, automobiles in the use of the city can be taken from the garage only between the hours of 7:30 a. m. and 6 p. m. on week-days, excepting Saturday, when they must be returned to the garage by 1 a. m. Sundays and holidays the automobiles will remain in the garage. If any employee wishes to use the machines in the service of the city outside these prescribed hours a written explanation must be filed.

The city machines will be repaired, kept in oil and gasoline, washed, cleaned and kept in condition at the garage. Auto Mechanic Ready has been placed in charge and will be authorized to carry out the regulations.

The resolution was read this morning and was put over till tomorrow to give the other commissioners an opportunity to study it. Fire and police autos are exempted from the ruling.

SHIP IS FINED FOR HAVING ONE OPERATOR

SAN FRANCISCO, April 24.—The steamer F. A. Kilburn was assessed a fine of $60 today by order of the department of commerce for sailing from this port recently with only one wireless operator. Collector of the Port Frederick Stratton made a report of the affair, and as a result a $50 fine was set, with the provision that if it is not paid in 30 days the amount will be $5000. The North Pacific Steamship Company is the owner of the boat.

Industries Threatened With Destruction.

Making pencils is an extensive industry in the United States that is threatened with extinction by the tariff bill introduced in Congress. New York is where the pencils are made, but the cedar slats used in their manufacture are made in California, Tennessee, Florida and other Southern States. Should the domestic manufacture of pencils cease, the plants scattered about the country now employed in producing slats would be compelled to shut down and our home market surrendered to foreign makers.

German made pencils would supersede the product of our home makers, and Germany does not use American cedar in making pencils. The German makers get their cedar from German East Africa. All government officers in Germany are required to use pencils made with African cedar, as Germany desires to develop the resources of her African possessions while building up her manufactures at home.

The German tariff shuts American-made pencils out of the German market, even if the lower labor cost in the Kaiser's empire were not an insuperable obstacle to the exportation of pencils from the United States to Germany. Where the American manufacturer pays out a dollar for labor the German manufacturer pays out a mark. Figured in American money, a mark is twenty-three cents.

Under the present tariff law a specific duty of 45 cents per gross is levied on foreign pencils imported into this country, in addition to 25 per cent ad valorem. The bill which has just been introduced in Congress abolishes the specific duty entirely. As the 25 per cent ad valorem duty is insufficient to equalize the cost of production, the pencil industry in the United States will be destroyed if the bill goes through in its present form. This will react disastrously on timber land owners and mill proprietors in several States, besides throwing a large number of people out of employment.

Until a comparatively recent period the common red cedar of California had no market value. It was not worth cutting till a company entered this field with a plant to manufacture pencil slats. This plant is located at San Leandro, in Alameda County, and occupies a tract of fourteen acres. It has recently been enlarged and improved at considerable expense. Several acres were purchased at a cost of $1500 an acre. At San Leandro 108 persons are employed and over 100 more are employed in the woods. In addition to cutting its own timber, the San Leandro concern buys cedar logs from a number of lumbering companies operating in this State.

Thus a new industry has been created in California utilizing a hitherto waste product and giving employment to a large number of working men. If the pencil manufacturers in the East are compelled to shut down by a ruinous reduction in tariff duties, the San Leandro plant will also be compelled to close down, and there will be no longer a market for California cedar.

And what will we get in return? The privilege of buying German pencils made from African cedar. The plumbago used by American pencil makers is mined in the United States, but the plumbago mines will have to shut down if the pencil makers are forced out of business.

End of a Scandalous Crusade.

A complete vindication of the administration of San Quentin prison is the result of the investigation instigated by Fremont Older, aided by Donald Lowrie, Ed. Morrell and other ex-convicts. No evidence was presented to sustain the charges, which were contradicted by all the testimony the committee could find. It was shown that the food is abundant, clean and well cooked; that Warden Hoyle is a humane, just man, rather overindulgent than otherwise, and that Captain Randolph, while a strict disciplinarian, is kind and considerate in his treatment of prisoners.

Facts of common knowledge have been reduced to the form of affirmative statement under oath. The cloud of calumny, false stories of cruelty, starvation and persecution set afloat by vengeful criminals and their abettors has been dissipated by the truth made plain to all save those who do not want the truth, but who would make falsehood a pretext for disgracing and displacing honest men and true who have incurred the enmity of crooks by doing their duty.

Naturally the Bulletin is not pleased. Fremont Older is the guiding spirit of that sheet, and Fremont Older began the attack on the San Quentin management and the Prison Directors because Abe Ruef was not paroled at his demand. Older assumed that Ruef was his prisoner, and contended that he had a right to turn him loose if he wanted to. He was unwilling that Ruef should have a fair trial in the courts, but took it upon himself, for reasons best known to himself, to nullify Ruef's sentence after he had been convicted. He presumed to give the Warden and the Prison Directors orders, and proposed to wipe out the parole rules without a shadow of reason or authority.

Older's methods are set forth in the remarks made by the Hon. T. D. Johnston, Assemblyman from Contra Costa County, who served on the investigation committee, when the report was read:

"On the evening of the first day of our arrival in San Francisco to begin this investigation we were called upon by Mr. Older. We had been told by a representative of the Bulletin that Older had some information he would give us. Instead of giving us any information Older indulged in a long tirade against the authorities at San Quentin.

"We told him, after he had finished, that we would take testimony on all these matters, and Older then exclaimed:

"What do you want to take any testimony for? Don't you know they are all rotten over there? All you need to do is to throw the whole bunch out."

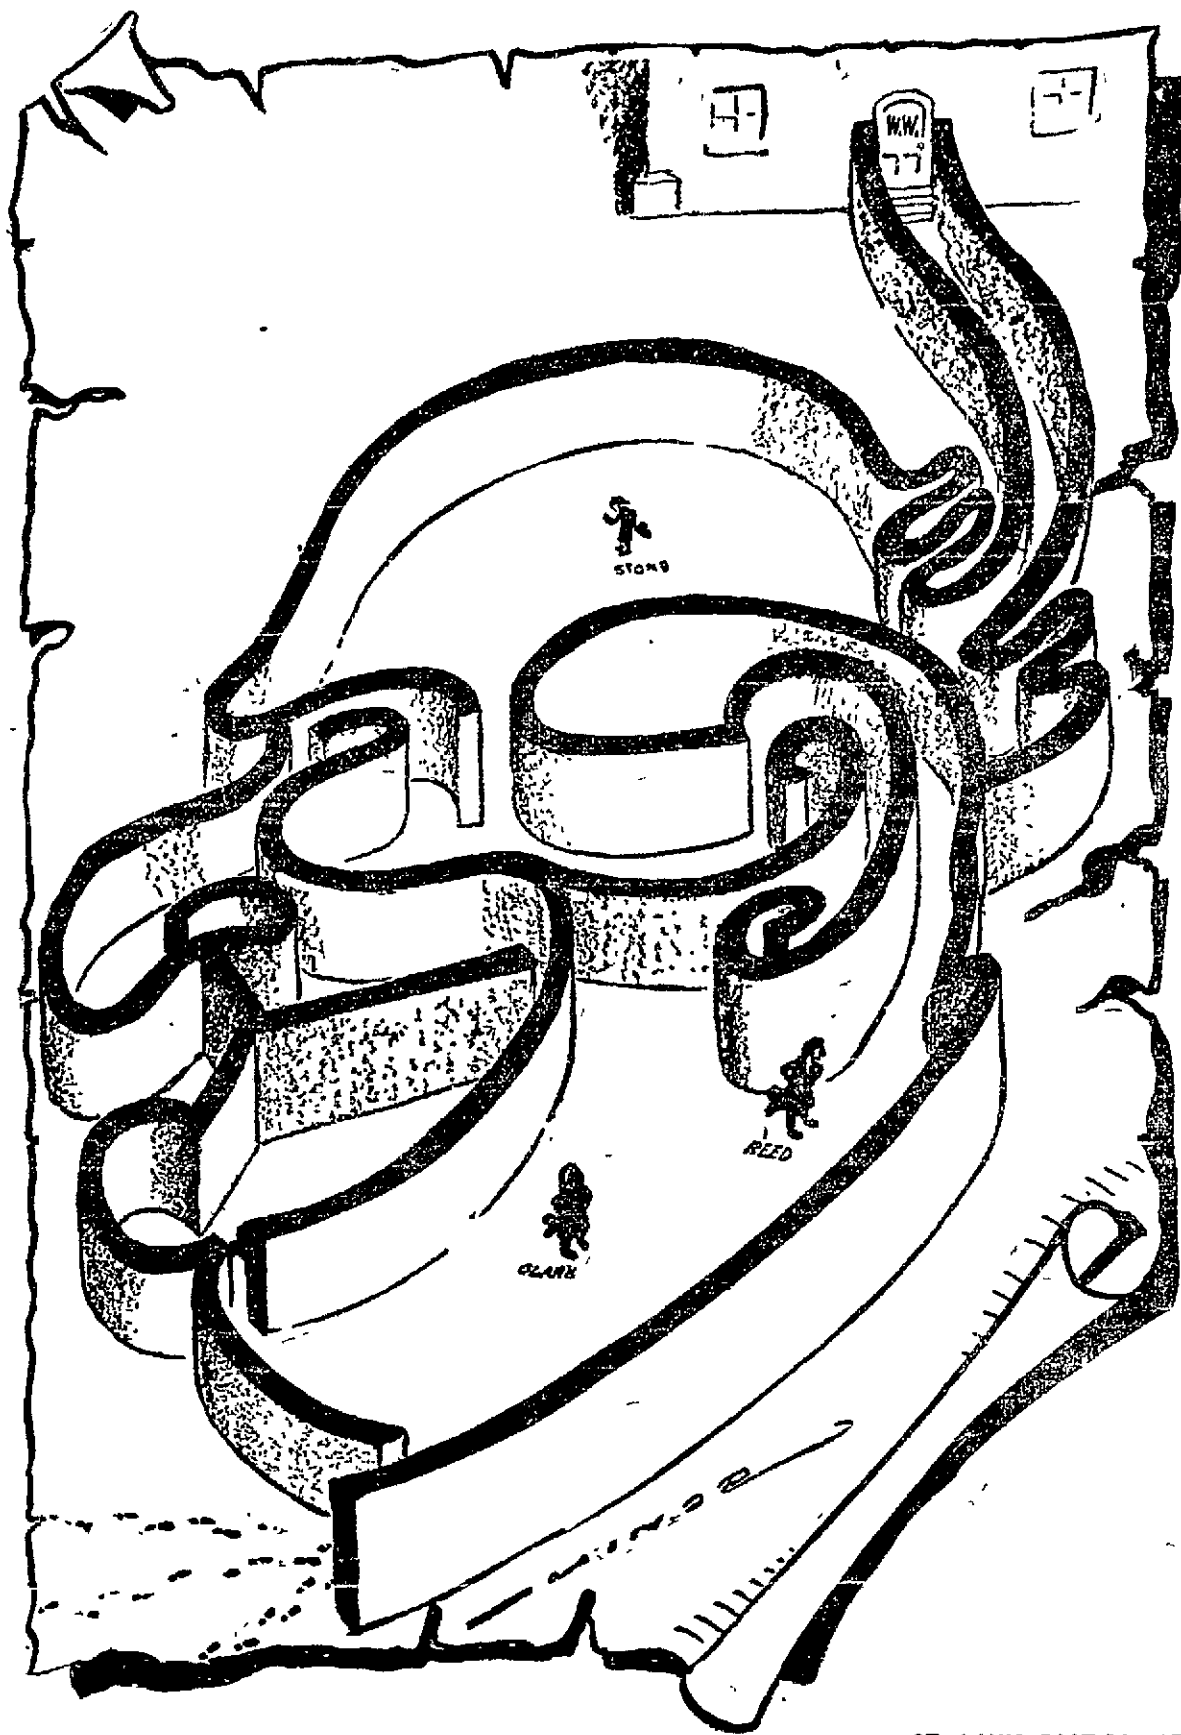

"The intention of the Bulletin from the start was to force upon this committee a report without regard to the facts, in order that the paper might force the release from prison of a former distinguished citizen of the State.

"In regard to Mr. Older, I wish to say this is my individual opinion and it pleases me to be able to express it at this time."

This is sufficiently illuminating to be clear to the dullest understanding. It calls for no comment. It tells its own tale and points its own moral. It is a hint of what it would mean to send men to prison on Older's mere say-so and release them at his command.

The investigating committee is entitled to the thanks of the good people of the State for doing their duty and making a report of the facts as they found them. Control of the State prisons is not yet to be surrendered into the hands of ex-convicts.

Stop the Foolish War Talk.

The Japanese Ambassador emphatically denies that his government threatens war in case the anti-alien land law goes through at Sacramento. His denial was hardly necessary to convince thinking people of the falsity of the canard. The war story was circulated obviously to create sentiment in favor of the bill. It was a representation made to kindle inflammable patriotism and prevent a reasonable discussion and consideration of the measure. The purpose was manifestly to create the impression that Japan is trying to bluff the United States, which she is not trying to do. We are not afraid of war, but we do want to be right. Agitators in Japan opposed to the party in power have been doing some inflammatory talk, but that is for home consumption. The Japanese government is maintaining a dignified and courteous attitude toward this country, and it is a pity that efforts should be made to inflame the war spirit merely to provoke antagonisms that will mar the harmonious relations existing between the two countries. It is absurd to think President Wilson would submit to dictation from Japan or any other country. But no dictation has been attempted, and it is mischievous to represent to the contrary. Talking about war is the way to bring it on. There is no evidence that Japan is hostile to the United States, and we are confident that war with this country is the last thing she contemplates.

Despite the bullying of the great powers, little Montenegro stuck to the siege of Scutari until success crowned her efforts. Montenegro's flag floats over Scutari, and King Nicholas will keep what he has won until forced to yield it by overwhelming numbers. Will the powers commit the outrage of despoiling the little kingdom of what has been won at such cost? It will be to their eternal dishonor if they do.

COST OF YEAR'S COLDS

March is the month pre-eminently of coughs and colds in the head, and probably during its four and a half weeks each year every second person will suffer from one or both.

Twenty-three million colds? I don't suppose any one has the faintest idea of what this means in dollars. But the loss is really enormous; and, considering how bitterly we complain when a penny is added to the rates or the income tax, it seems surprisingly stupid to go on getting colds every time that March comes around.

The loss for each individual, of course, varies with his earning power and the seriousness of his cold. If a clerk with a weekly salary of $10 is away from work on day, and has his efficiency lowered 10 per cent for three days more, the cost of his cold on this account is a little less than $25. But in the case of a cabinet minister confined to his room two days, and doing reduced work two days more, we may not down the loss at about $100.

It has been calculated that 80 in each 100 colds are colds in the head, and not very serious; 20 in each 100 attack the throat and chest, and often lead to bronchitis, pneumonia, pleurisy, or some other serious disease, one in a thousand results in death, or considerable shortening of life.

Then there is the cost of doctors, medicines, invalid diet, nursing, etc., which amounts to a large sum in the case of a judge or a wealthy business man, and is necessarily a little when

NAMES ON PAINTINGS

Many of the works of the masters are not signed. Experts rarely rely on signatures alone in determining the authenticity of an old work, but trust rather to their knowledge of the painter's technique. False signatures can be easily detected. Spirits of wine or turpentine will usually remove a name of later date than the painting. In the course of time signatures often become very difficult to find. Painted originally in a shade slightly lighter than the ground perhaps they sink in, darken, and merge into the ground color or they are almost rubbed away by successive cleanings. Recognizable one day in a specially favorable light, they may not be visible for weeks.

Experts speak of "will-o'-the-wisp" signatures and many collectors have encountered accidental strokes and cracks that tantalizingly suggest a signature, though it can never be made definite. On the other hand, there have been remarkable cases of such marks after careful study, resolving themselves into a famous name.

Sometimes the painter's name is most conspicuous, as, for instance, in Raphael's "Sposalizio" at Milan. Proud of having surpassed his master, the youthful genius wrote on a frieze in the very center of the canvas "Raphael Urbinas."

Reynolds hardly ever signed his work. But upon the completion of the portrait of Mrs. Siddons as the Tragic Muse, he wrote his name large in the gold embroidery of her dress. He was unable, he said, "to resist the temptation of sending my name to posterity on 'the hem of your garment'."

With reference to unsigned paintings, there is told in Germany an amusing story. Achenbach, the German artist, enjoyed a vogue about 10 years ago. A certain collector had bought from an art dealer a marine represented as a genuine Achenbach. Afterward it was pronounced to be a copy. The buyer brought an action against the dealer, who turned the tables by declaring his picture was genuine and the other was a copy.—Harper's Weekly.

LATEST NEWS FROM OUTSIDE TOWNS

CHURCH FETES
DEPARTING PASTOR

Social Given in Honor of Rev. Monroe Drew by the Presbyterians.

SAN LEANDRO, April 24.—The men of the Presbyterian church of San Leandro entertained the pastor, Rev. Monroe Drew, at a social last night, on the occasion of his leaving for an extended tour of Palestine, Egypt and Europe. Dinner was served and the company afterward heard a musical program, contributed by local talent. The committee in charge of the affair consisted of J. J. Lynch, W. J. Jones and Dr. C. H. Miller. Rev. Drew made suitable reply to the wishes for a good time during his journey.

Rev. Drew will leave about the end of next week.

He will be gone over four months, and during that time will take in the principal sights of the Holy Land and Europe. He will act as a delegate from California to the International Sunday School Convention, which meets this year in Zurich, Switzerland. On his return to his charge in San Leandro he will probably give lectures on his impressions of the tour. In Rev. Drew's absence, the pulpit of the Presbyterian church will be filled part of the time by Rev. Arthur Hicks, of Berkeley.

ORCHARD CAMP
WILL ENTERTAIN

Music, Athletics and Other Amusement Features Will Provide Happy Evening.

SAN LORENZO, April 24.—Music, athletics and all sorts of fun and frolic will figure at an entertainment to be given tonight by Old Orchard camp, Woodmen of the World, of San Lorenzo. The committee in charge of the Woodmen entertainment has arranged the following program:

Vocal solo, Miss Isabel McCauley; exhibition floor work, drill team; Neighbor Vase and sons of Berkeley; recitation, Neighbor Butz; vocal solo, Neighbor Perry; an amusing dialogue, Neighbor and Stock Company; exhibition of Indian wrestling; vocal solo, Mrs. Nielsen; recitation, Miss Maude Martin; recitation by Neighbor Hughes; on the good of the order; vocal solo, Miss Isabel McCauley; Italian baseball; recitation, Neighbor Moran; vocal solo, Neighbor Perry; farce, "Pizzie, or Something"; Neighbor's Rose and Madley; violin solo, Mr. Bonke; recitation, Neighbor Smith; vocal solo, Neighbor Vase and sons; Neighbor's Vase and sons; Indian wrestling; club passing contest between married men and single men.

STREET IMPROVEMENTS
PLANNED FOR TOWN

HAYWARD, April 24.—Improvement work on Hayward streets undertaken by the town trustees has brought out a number of suggestions from the citizens. Asphalting of the streets which have not already been treated that way is generally favored. It is pointed out that a splendid new concrete bridge is shortly to be erected across the San Lorenzo creek, and that in conjunction with the construction of the bridge property owners lay the roadway with asphalt to the end of the county line. Superintending the road would do all he could to improve the road as far as the new bridge. Improvements in this direction are felt to be necessary in view of the increased motor traffic which will use the road on the completion of the new bridge across the creek.

GUILD'S WORK FOR DAYTON PRAISED

Piedmont Women Hear From Indianapolis Needle Workers.

PIEDMONT, April 24.—The Piedmont Woman's Guild of Piedmont church is in receipt of a letter from Mrs. Elizabeth Mores, secretary of the Indianapolis branch, Needlework Guild of America, acknowledging the receipt by that branch of the relief boxes sent to the flood sufferers. After reading the letter, a receipt of the boxes, the writer continues: "It is easy to see that you, who sent us these comforting articles, have been through an emergency yourselves. Your things were used as fast as we could unpack them. We shall never forget your kindness."

"About 3000 families, by official count, were made almost or entirely destitute, according to whether or not they had a few second year to their house. The business district escaped entirely and the residence district suffered nothing more serious than flooded cellars for five squares north and south of the creek."

"Of course, we had no water, no street car service and very poor telephone service for a week. Relief work was very quickly organized, rather effective, in spite of our inexperience, but with many weak spots on account of it. Individuals, churches and societies have made themselves personally responsible for the reinstating of from one to twenty-five families, which they select, investigate and settle themselves. I gave out to friends of my own very bright and comfortable bags, to be given out to the wonderfully patient, brave women they had found to help. Sincerely yours,

"ELIZABETH MORES,
"Secretary Indianapolis Branch Needlework Guild of America."

YOUNG PEOPLE'S PARTY A SUCCESS

Home of Joseph Jorgensen Specially Decorated for the Festive Occasion.

HAYWARD, April 24.—A young people's party held at the home of Joseph Jorgensen, of Castro Valley, proved a very enjoyable affair. The guests met at the invitation of two Castro valley young men, Alden Larsen and Joseph Jorgensen. The Jorgensen home was specially decorated for the occasion. Dancing was the order of the evening and refreshments were served during the interludes. Music was furnished by Miss Hansen, who presided at the piano.

Those present were Marion Strohbridge, Elsie and Hanson Turk, Dan Martin, Mabel Harden, Carrie Strohbridge, Burnett Park, Estelle Chadbourne, Marjorie Jones, Helene Powell, Lorraine Moore, Tackla Davis, Lorna Robinson, Francis Schellhorn, Alden Larsen, Joe Jorgensen, Homer Fish, William Christensen, John and Dewitt Lee, Edmond Tyler, Dudley Steeves, Charlie Long, Richard Russell, Carlisle Crosby, Granville Browning, Anthony Andrade, Henry Dillon, Kippel Jones, Clinton King, Bennet Madison.

SAN LEANDRO PARLOR
TO GIVE GRAND BALL

SAN LEANDRO, April 24.—All is now in readiness for a military ball which will be given next Saturday evening by the 14th Woodmen of the World, to mark the tenth anniversary of its institution. A large number of lodge members from the city and San Leandro will be the guests of the parlor on the occasion, and the affair will be one of the most important social events of the season.

Elaborate arrangements have been made by the committee in charge, and no details have been spared to insure success. The Masonic hall will be specially decorated. The committee appointed by the parlor to manage the affair consists of W. G. Muntz, chairman; E. J. Hoerst, M. M. Bradley, R. D. Jones and E. Prates.

BOYS OF CASTLE KIP TO STAGE MINSTRELS

HAYWARD, April 24.—Among the attractive student acts staged at the high school vaudeville show, will be a minstrel show by the boys of Castle Kip, Knights of King Arthur. The youthful knights are rehearsing their performance, and will bring to the stage a number of the way of minstrel fun. Eight acts will be given by the boys of the High school and they will receive the assistance of several talented outsiders in their production. No date has yet been fixed for the High school performance, but it will probably be held early next month.

HAYWARDS MAY GET
NEXT DANIA CONVENTION

HAYWARD, April 24.—Information that the Dania convention of 1914 will meet in Hayward has given great satisfaction to Hayward Thysa lodge. Much of the credit of bringing the convention here next year falls to the five Hayward delegates who attended the convention in Watsonville—Peter Sorenson, G. L. Christensen, H. M. Sorenson, Hans Christensen and M. Nielsen; also to the grand trustees, M. H. Mores, H. H. Jones and H. Jones, who have been elected to that position. Hayward had forward the largest delegation from any lodge.

YALE GRADUATE KILLS
LITTLE SON AND SELF

NEW YORK, April 24.—After firing a bullet into the brain of nine-year-old son tonight, inflicting a wound from which he died a few hours later, William Vincent Robbins, a lawyer of New York and Norfolk, Va., committed suicide by cutting his throat at the home of his brother-in-law, Clarence Levy, in an uptown apartment house.

Robbins, a graduate of Yale law school, came to New York from his home in New Haven, Conn., where he had been living apart from his wife and three young sons, at present at Atlantic City, N. J.

WILL DEDICATE
WOODMEN HALL

New Home of Cypress Camp to Be Opened With Elaborate Ceremonies.

HAYWARD, April 24.—The dedication of the new $6000 home of Cypress Camp No. 141, Woodmen of the World, Tuesday, April 24, will be attended by well known Woodmen from all parts of the state. Head Consul E. O. Bork of Denver, who is at the head of the Woodmen in the Pacific Jurisdiction, will perform the dedication ceremony, and will be accompanied by a number of high officers. The dedication of the handsome lodge building will be the first gain in a round of the Woodmen going in Hayward. Over 150 delegates are expected to attend the Woodmen district convention here starting May 21. During their stay in Hayward the delegates will be the guests of the members of Cypress lodge, and as a diversion automobile trips into the surrounding country are planned.

Workmen have almost finished the construction of the lodge, and preparations are well advanced for the dedication. Following the ceremony the head officers, visitors and the members of Cypress lodge will be entertained with a musical program in the Odd Fellows' hall.

BACHELORS' CLUB HAS UNIQUE DANCE

Shirt-Sleeve Affair Held by the Popular Oakland Organization.

Shirt sleeves for the men was the order at the Bachelor's Club dance held last night in Maple Hall. The attendance was large, ninety-five couples taking part in the grand march, and everybody had a good time. George B. Renshaw, Miss Maud E. Smith, Leslie E. Olson and Miss Katherine M. Smith led the march.

Last night's event was one of many that are planned by the committee in direction of the Bachelor's Club and an effort is made to feature pleasing innovations or something different without transgressing the conventional, and this accounts for the growing popularity of the club. Wednesday, May 7, is the date set for the next dance.

M'MANIGAL WILL BE SET FREE

Informers Against McManigal Brothers and Union Officials to Receive Liberty.

LOS ANGELES, April 24.—Ortis E. McManigal, the confessed dynamiter and chief witness against the McNamara brothers, who have been a prisoner here since April, 1911, will be released within 30 days, according to attaches of the district attorney's office. McManigal, himself, said today that he had no information regarding prospective liberty, and maintained that when he turned state's evidence against the McNamara dynamite crew he did so to ease his conscience and not for any consideration of immunity.

McManigal, it is understood, will be given his liberty without restriction, and he will promptly make his way to some place where he will be unknown to "start life over again."

ST. ANDREW'S WHIST PARTY.

What promises to be a successful whist party will be given tomorrow (Friday) evening at the saloon of William Spanhake, 887 O'Farrell street, had been broken into. They trailed Werner and found two bottles of wine and a $100 person. The money had been taken from the cash register in the place, and entrance was gained by climbing through a transom.

Werner confessed and admitted that he had an accomplice whose name was furnished to the detective department. He declared that he had been led to commit the crime by his companion whom he had met in a pool room.

JINX IS BACK AND HOGAN HAS IT SHORT STORY OF BANG! BANG! BANG! SEALS SKINNED

Burns and Wolgast for Ten Rounds May Be Rohan's Card

HOGAN HAS FOUND THAT OLD JINX OF HIS AGAIN Escanaba Violinist Accorded Ragged Support; Is Bumped Severely

[By BILLY FITZ.] "Happy" Hogan does not believe he will get himself thoroughly disliked around "My City—Oakland." We can stand for the capitulation of Scutari without batting an eyelash; in fact, we're not quite certain in what league Scutari belongs, but when the Vernon Tiger walks away with the champions' nanny it is time to get nervous. You will recollect that last year Sacramento and Vernon shared honors as the custodian of the Oaks' hollow-horned ruminant. Vernon could beat us with as much ease as a hoop-snake doing the hundred-yard dash, while up at Sacramento we used to blame it on the water. Later in the season, of course, the Oaks bowled the jinx over, but the sunvagn is right back on the job apparently.

Five straight for the Bathing Beauties of Venice and a smile on the face of the Tiger. Mitze probably recalled the South's performance last year of "Frank" Olmsted, who won the only two full games he was permitted to pitch. Those games, if memory serves us correctly, were in the land of sunshine and sharks, and Father probably thought Olmsted could repeat. Also, it is getting near the time of the month when Mitze must tie the jinx to one of his servers and an outfielder, so he is trying to get a final squint at his repertoire. Judging from the telegraphic account of the game as given yesterday from the TRIBUNE scoreboard and in the "green," "Musical Frank" stands a chance to choose the Escanaba orchestra. He may have had an off-day at that, for sometimes Olmsted has a hop-ball that crosses the plate standing straight up.

It begins to look as though the Oak defense will have to be given an over-hauling. Hotting, New, Cook and Rohrer were given errors yesterday, and from what we know of the scoring down South, where hits are awarded more liberally than at any other station on the circuit, there was no mistake about the bobbles. One can hardly blame the youthful musician for heading an aeroplane after such support. Five singles, three triples and three passes to first were registered off Olmsted, which is an ample sufficiency without going any further. Coy's double and Cook's single scored one for the Oaks in the sixth, and in the eighth Coy again tapped the plate on a walk, an infield out and Cook's single.

The red-headed battery, "Speed" Harkness and Ralph Kretz, proved too hot for the Oaks.

Los Angeles fans think Jack Ness is going to prove a wonder. We've opined so since we first peeped him coming over from the States. In the early innings he slipped a soaring foul to the r. f. f. b. bleachers, and the Oaks yelled. "Can't get it!" Ness paid no more attention to the yells than a pup to the time of day, racing with outstretched hand to the railing and miffing the sphere just as it was about to strike a fair distance into the bleachers. Too bad, Ness is married, or we might have had a romance.

The disgrace of the Ducks is complete, for they fell into the cellar yesterday, shoved thither by Wolverton's pack, 5 to 0. "Accidentally," an "amazing" hit, "a side-show wonder" attended the exhibition. Catcher Cheek got the nose-bleed, Pitcher Drake made his debut, Moran and Rodgers made nice circus catches, Jimmy Lewis scored from third base after Bill Rodgers had caught Shinn's fly just off the skinned back.

Three of Sacramento's five runs were scored via the sacrifice fly route. Thirteen of Portland's alleged speedsters were out on base. Jimmy Shinn stepped to the plate five times, yet he isn't figured in the A.B. column of the box score. The pitcher, who was hit twice and had a sacrifice fly.

Fanning flung a good sample of ball yesterday against the Chermbs, but "Bill" Tozer was the Archangel with the guaranteed-to-deliver wing, and so smothered the Seals, 2-0, in a slow season.

Apparently Maggart is out after Coy's record, for he posted the ball over the fence again yesterday at the start of the second inning, and loomed around the yellow route nonchalantly. The visitors again in action on base seven times. Johnson, after singling, was chased to second on Tozer's single and catapulted.

RITTTLER HOPES TO SEE HIM DEVELOP INTO POINT-GETTER

FRED T. WEST.

The Cogswell High School-St. Mary's Freshman Track Meet, scheduled for the local institution's oval yesterday afternoon, failed to materialize, because of the non-appearance of the San Franciscoans. Coach C. J. Zittler of the local school expected to get a line on several likely-looking youngsters, but will have to wait until a later date to see what the freshies can do. The freshies have already had one meeting this season, they defeated Hayward High.

OAKLAND HIGH WINNER OF COUNTY LEAGUE PENNANT

Defeat of "Poly" Will Send Oakland Against S. F. Team for Final Test.

STANDING OF THE LEAGUE. B. C. A. L. BASEBALL. Oakland High School... Won. Lost. Pct. Oakland Poly High... 4 1 .800 Alameda High School... 3 2 .600 Fremont High School... 2 3 .400 Berkeley High School... 1 4 .200 The Oakland High School baseball team by defeating the Oakland Polytechnic High School team yesterday afternoon at Grove street park by the score of 5-1, won the Alameda County Sub-League championship and will now play the San Francisco Polytechnic High School team for the championship of the B. C. A. L. The game was a well played one through out and was featured by many good plays. The pitching of Roy Fowler won the game for Oakland. He allowed but 4 hits and struck out eleven men who Campi in the box for Poly, while striking out fourteen Oakland players, was touched up for 12 hits. Raynor Gillick, center field for Oakland, played a perfect game, featuring with a three-bagger and a double and several brilliant catches. The most sensational of these was the catch of End Sharp's long fly in the ninth, with a roar on the bags, that looked good for three bases. Egan and Oakland and Sharpe and Garcia of Polytechnic each secured a two-bagger apiece. In the absence of Bob Radke, catcher for Oakland, Captain Cunha took his place behind the bat and caught a fine game, nailing several men at second. Billy Bannan played first in manner. Gillick at second and Brooks and Cowan at third and short respectively gave Fowler splendid support, making two double plays. At last and Sharpe at first for Poly showed to the best advantage in the loser's infield, with Garcia playing a good game at center. While both teams were supported by rooting sections, the Market Street School had the largest number on hand. Oakland's band was also present. The score by innings: OAKLAND POLY. HIGH. 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9. Runs... 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 1 Hits... 0 0 1 0 0 1 1 1 0-4.

New Heavyweight Aspirant

JACK HEMPLE OF CANADA, WHOM ALEX GREGGAINS PICKS TO BE A COMER.

Bob Heavy Favorite

Supporters of Bob McAllister, former Olympic champion, who tomorrow night meets Saddy Lavin at Pavilion Park in a four-round engagement, are backing him heavily and have forced the odds to 10 to 1 in his favor. It is the opinion of many that these are false odds, Lavin having had considerable ring experience and a "his last performance has shown him to be a much better fighter than he is credited with being." Lavin will be home the bacon, and in the event that he does the fight, McAllister members will find themselves very quiet.

Willie is Silent

Great gods of silence from Montana where Willie Ritchie is still gathering in the green from behind the footlights on the stage, are being a real cream puff champion. Very truly, this is an easy victory.

Tom Williams expresses the hope in an interview in Chicago that racing will be resumed in the great horse-breeding States in a different basis than formerly and under proper restrictions. That seems to be the general assumption at Emeryville, where the "old-timers" are waiting to see how New York will handle the horse experiment. If it is a success there, we can look for the bang-bang-bang in this vicinity.

Two carloads of other horses left Pleasanton last night. One car contained six of E. J. MacKenzie's trotters and pacers, including the great Joe Patchen. The other car contained the horses of H. Dick Wilson, who has the other car of horses, which are headed by Maurice E. the biggest money winner of last season in the pacing line.

It took Stanislaus Zbyzsko 96 minutes to put Constance Le March to the mat last night at Chicago in a wrestling match. Think of the poor spectators who witnessed the "thrilling" affair.

All bets were called off by Referee Ed Smith, following the introduction ceremony. Well, say we, anybody who is enough to wager on a wrestling match ought to lose, or have a guardian appointed.

Pitcher Tiny Barker found the going too strong in the American League, and was released by Comiskey of Chicago yesterday to the St. Louis club of the Wisconsin-Illinois League.

Now comes the report that Frank Gotch will meet Zbyzsko on July 4. Frank's not interested.

Just as if the life of an umpire is not unpleasant enough as it now stands, now comes the President of the American League with the announcement that hereafter American League umpires will appear on the diamond immaculate in white flannels on "special occasions." When the President of the League states attends the umpire will have to array himself in a dress suit. They may introduce a reform in the Coast League to make the umpires shave at least once every two weeks.

At last the French sporting public has taken action to protect themselves from the pugs who tour that country putting up a fine exhibition. George Gunther has been suspended by the French and New York boxing authorities for a term of three months for failure to fulfill a contract. And Tom Leary for the same period for fouling Gunther in a Philadelphia box.

The Corinthian Yacht Club will open its 1913 season Sunday. About 30 owners have declared their intentions of being in the squadron, which will leave the Corinthian Boat House on the initial cruise on Saturday.

Young Shuerue of Jersey City, aspirant for the lightweight title, defeated Johnny Lora at New York last night. Phil Cross, who had been out of the ring for a year, stopped the fight at the end of the fourth round.

Another pair of boxers have put themselves in the line of honor, and the promoters would do well to bar them from participating in matches in this or any other country. They are Jack Britton and Harry Brown, who fought at Philadelphia, they put up such a rank exhibition that Referee William C. Roca stopped the fight at the end of the fourth round. The Philadelphia authorities have

UP TO TOM JONES TO GIVE HIS CONSENT TO NEW PACT

Burns Holding for Larger Ent and Longer Route With Ex-Champion.

By THE TIMEKEEPER

If Tom Jones, manager of Ao Wolgast, will consent to send his former champion against Frankie Burns over the ten-round route instead of the shorter distance, local fans will probably be treated to this card at the next Wheelmen Show. Burns demands $750 as his end of a Wolgast meeting, and Promoter Rohan does not see very well how he can afford to give him that unless the contest be increased to ten rounds.

Rohan has expected today to hear from Jones in reply to a night letter sent to Harbin Springs. The promoter is not at all convinced that the fans would rather see Burns than Wolgast. Wolgast himself has admitted that the Sacramento lightweight, in his opinion, would be a tougher nut to crack than Burns. As a result, Burns has been training together, and even since has been confident of his ability to win the Michigan belt.

New Heavyweight

Another heavyweight will be introduced to local sport followers at the show of the West Coast Athletic Union, the evening of the 20th of this month. In the new addition to the ranks being Jack Hempel, who met Saddy Schaefer in a six-round set-to at Hamilton, Ontario, Canada, was "discovered" by Billy Murray, while the latter was making a trip through the North. The new recruit is a husky built fellow, who tips the beam at 185 pounds. During his career in the North he has met with considerable success, winning the Canadian heavyweight title, and has been successful in several other fights. Hempel is also a fast and accurate boxer, and is expected to provide the main event of the evening's entertainment. The boys will travel over a ten-day tour, and Hempel is expected to provide the main event of the evening's entertainment. CROSSTOWN LINE
READY JUNE 1

Railroad Officials Say New Service Will Positively be Operated Soon.

ATAMEDA, April 24.—It was announced unofficially in this city yesterday afternoon from authoritative sources that the Southern Pacific has pledged itself to start the Alameda-Oakland cross-town service on June 1. The railroad officials announce that the company will operate a train to start at 10:30 a. m. on June 1, but can definitely promise to have it running by that time.

The timetabled now being arranged provides for a 20-minute service, with cars running easterly on Encinal avenue around the loop and westerly on Lincoln street to the depot and Lincoln avenue, where the cross-town line will switch across the marsh and the Harrison street bridge to Fourteenth and Franklin streets, and on to the Sixteenth-street depot. Stops will be made at First and Webster and also at Seventh and Webster.

While the company would prefer to make more frequent service, a 20-minute schedule appears to be the best that can be provided without interfering with the operation of the horsehoe trains over the joint line. The double-track loop, with 5-cent fares will be charged on the cross-town cars, operated as single-car trains, will stop at all stations on the Alameda loop. The time of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railway Co. street cars will be materially reduced and

ALAMEDA CITY TAXES DELINQUENT MONDAY

ALAMEDA, April 24.—Tax Collector Oswald Lubbock reports that tax money has been coming in in large amounts during the last few days and indications are that there will be but a small number of delinquencies. The second instalment will be delinquent after 5 o'clock next Monday evening, after which a penalty of five per cent will be added. An additional five per cent will also be added to delinquent first instalments.
